Welcome to the fourth EIPPEE newsletter!

EIPPEE is a European level network of governmental organizations, business and social partners as well as a private foundation. EIPPEE supports policymakers and practitioners in 4 European countries and beyond. You can help us to do this by spreading the word about EIPPEE, following us on twitter @EIPPEEnet.

As a member of the EIPPEE network, we would like to keep you informed about the project and to notify you about any forthcoming events or opportunities. The newsletter is quarterly, which means you will receive it every three months. You can remove yourself from our mailing list at any time. If you have any questions or comments, please contact Hazel Croft, Head of Centre for Educational Research and Innovation (CERI) at the Organisation for Economic Co

In this issue:

- Announcements
- More EIPPEE tailored workshops held in Lithuania and Portugal
- More EIPPEE tailored workshops held in Northern Italy and Latvia
- Feedback from our courses suggests that 100% of participants thought that the training would help them in their work
- Do you want to be involved in this exciting event? We have free consultancy service for decision makers to find and access evidence informed policy and practice
- Can you point us to any databases, portals, gateways and/or information sources that provide access to evidence use in the media? We post news about lots of interesting and relevant research on these topics, please let us know if you have any information sources that we should feature on the publicly available project website, each news item also get tweeted to @EIPPEEnet.
- Research opportunities. The newsletter is quarterly, which means you will receive it every three months. You can remove yourself from our mailing list at any time. If you have any questions or comments, please contact Hazel Croft, Head of Centre for Educational Research and Innovation (CERI) at the Organisation for Economic Co

EIPPEE is providing a free consultation service for decision makers to find and access evidence informed policy and practice. You can keep up with news about the project and related activities, events and research opportunities. This newsletter covers feedback from our courses, particularly, people from countries and regions of Southern Europe to our courses, including Slovenia, Sweden and the UK. We are extremely keen to recruit more people from countries and beyond. You can help us to do this by spreading the word about EIPPEE, following us on twitter @EIPPEEnet.

Feedback from our courses suggests that 100% of participants thought that the training would help them in their work. To remove your name from our mailing list, please contact Hazel Croft.

EIPPEE supports policymakers and practitioners in 4 European countries and beyond. If you have an evidence informed policy and practice related item that you’d like to feature on the publicly available project website, each news item also get tweeted to @EIPPEEnet.

If you have any evidence informed policy and practice news or items you would like to feature on the publicly available project website, each news item also get tweeted to @EIPPEEnet.

Welcome to the fourth EIPPEE newsletter!

EIPPEE is a European level network of governmental organizations, business and social partners as well as a private foundation. EIPPEE supports policymakers and practitioners in 4 European countries and beyond. You can help us to do this by spreading the word about EIPPEE, following us on twitter @EIPPEEnet.

As a member of the EIPPEE network, we would like to keep you informed about the project and to notify you about any forthcoming events or opportunities. The newsletter is quarterly, which means you will receive it every three months. You can remove yourself from our mailing list at any time. If you have any questions or comments, please contact Hazel Croft, Head of Centre for Educational Research and Innovation (CERI) at the Organisation for Economic Co

In this issue:

- Announcements
- More EIPPEE tailored workshops held in Lithuania and Portugal
- More EIPPEE tailored workshops held in Northern Italy and Latvia
- Feedback from our courses suggests that 100% of participants thought that the training would help them in their work
- Do you want to be involved in this exciting event? We have free consultancy service for decision makers to find and access evidence informed policy and practice
- Can you point us to any databases, portals, gateways and/or information sources that provide access to evidence use in the media? We post news about lots of interesting and relevant research on these topics, please let us know if you have any information sources that we should feature on the publicly available project website, each news item also get tweeted to @EIPPEEnet.
- Research opportunities. The newsletter is quarterly, which means you will receive it every three months. You can remove yourself from our mailing list at any time. If you have any questions or comments, please contact Hazel Croft, Head of Centre for Educational Research and Innovation (CERI) at the Organisation for Economic Co